SAINT THOMAS MORE YOUTH RETREAT 2009

To be Daniel is to be young, committed, unafraid and unswayed by the enticements of the easy way and the quick fix. In his mid-teens, Daniel is carried off into a far country with strange customs. There he is successful, envied, targeted, trapped and thrown into the Lion's Den. God delivers Daniel and exalts him so that he becomes a blessing to all, even to those who threw him to the beasts. Daniel's story is our story; what occurred in his young life happens daily in the lives of our youth. They need God, the firm-footing of Faith and our support to have successful, joyful and exciting lives. Help them now and they'll bless us later.

—Rev. Julian P. Harris

Pastor Harris' words remind us of the challenges our young people face every day and of the importance of giving them the spiritual armor to meet and conquer every challenge on the way to maturity and blessing.
